

Philips ProPlus

Incremental rewards for choosing Philips equipment, service and financing

One company

Imagine the advantages of having one company to help you acquire, maintain and pay for the technology you need. Choose Philips, and we'll reward you with ProPlus, a value-rich offering for customers who want flexibility without having to forego simplicity or affordability.

How does it work? When you select Philips service and financing solutions for your new Philips technology, you are immediately eligible for ProPlus benefits, including incremental discounts.

ProPlus Benefits

- Flexible service agreement options -- six service plans from which to choose
 - Match your most important strategic priorities and urgent service needs
- Simple asset administration -- one invoice and one payment
 - Reduce the financial and administrative burdens of managing multiple contracts

- Economical pricing -- discounts off both your service and financing contracts
 - 2.5% discount off the list price of your service contract
 - 1.5% discount off your monthly financing payments
 - Option to return equipment at the end of financing term (Fair Market Value leases)
 - Up to $25K towards free de-installation of your equipment at the end of the financing term, even if you choose a vendor other than Philips for your replacement system

Let us reward you with Philips ProPlus.
